

TRS “Little Red Riding Hood”

There was once was a little girl who lived with her father and mother in a house at the edge of a forest. In the same forest, her grandmother also resided. Her grandmother had given her a long red hooded coat which she wore so much that everyone called her Little Red Riding Hood.

One morning Little Red Riding Hood's mother said, "Put on your coat and take this basket of cookies to your sick grandmother."

As Little Red Riding Hood was walking in the forest, a voice from behind said, "What have you in that basket, Little Red Riding Hood?" The girl turned around and saw a great big wolf.

"I have cookies for my ailing grandmother," she said.

"Ah... I know where she lives," the wolf said. "I hope she enjoys them." Then, the wolf ran into the forest toward the grandmother's house. He soon arrived and knocked at the door of her house.

"Who is there?" called the grandmother from her bed.

"Little Red Riding Hood," said the wolf in a girlish voice.

"Just open the door and come right on in."

The wolf opened the door and pounced on the bed, eating the grandmother up in one big bite. The wolf then put on the the grandmother's headscarf.

Soon afterwards, Little Red Riding Hood walked into the house saying, "Good morning, Grandmother, I brought you a basket of cookies." As she came close to the bed she said, "What big ears you have, Grandmother."

"All the better to hear you with, my dear."

"What big eyes you have, Grandmother."

"All the better to see you with, my dear."

"What a big nose you have."

"All the better to smell you with, my dear."

"But, Grandmother, what a big mouth you have."

"All the better to eat you up, my dear," screamed the wolf as he sprang at Little Red Riding Hood. Just at that moment, the woodcutter was passing the house and he heard the scream. He rushed in and with his axe chopped off the wolf's head.

The woodcutter carried Little Red Riding Hood back home. Everyone was happy that she had escaped the wolf. But, they were sad that the wolf had eaten her grandmother.

Re-think

(1) Why didn't the wolf eat Little Red Riding Hood right there in the forest?

Re-think

(2) Why might the grandmother have been tricked by the wolf?
