CONNECT TO WRITING

Introductory Words
Commas are not needed after an introductory word in short sentences unless it is emphasized.
Examples: Now go home. However, they were wrong.

Introductory Phrases
Don’t use a comma after short introductory prepositional phrases of four words or less.
Example: Under the table the dog hid.
Use a comma after long introductory prepositional phrases of five words or more.
Example: Behind the dining room cabinet, he found the missing watch.
Use a comma following an introductory participial phrase which modifies a noun or pronoun following the phrase.
Example: Disguised as an old man, the burglar gained entry into the warehouse.

Introductory Clauses
Use comma following an introductory dependent clause. A dependent clause has a noun connected to a verb that does not express a complete thought.
