FOCUS Linking and Helping Verbs

A linking verb is a mental action or state of being. A helping verb shows time, number, or modifies the meaning of a verb.

CONNECT TO WRITING

A linking verb renames or describes the subject of the sentence with another word or words. Each "to be" verb can be a linking verb: is, am, are, was, were, be, being, been

Examples: Mrs. Patterson was here. My friends are so nice.

Verbs that use the five senses: look, sound, smell, feel, taste and others: appear, seem, become, grow, turn, prove, remain can also be used as linking verbs.

Examples: Charlie feels awful. The children became tired.

Helping verbs are placed before the base form of the verb and any verb endings. More than one helping verb can be used in a sentence. Sometimes a word such as not separates the helping verb from the base form of the verb. A helping verb can also be placed before a linking verb to modify its meaning. English has 23 helping verbs:

is, am, are, was, were, be, being, been, has, have, had, do, does, did, will, shall, should, would, can, could, may, might, must

PRACTICE

Write LV to identify linking verbs and HV to identify helping verbs in the spaces provided.
Lydia was sure that she saw both of her friends at the mall. Her friends had told her that they were going to the library to study, but that did not turn out to be true.
Good friends would not have lied to her. Why they felt like they had to lie to Lydia would be anyone's guess. It seems like Lydia should find some new friends.
WRITE
Write a sentence with both linking and helping verbs.
