

Nouns Practice

1. Re-write these sentences correctly:

Washington d.c. is our nation's capital, and Ms. Gibson-Lee lived there for two years.

2. Identify the proper nouns in this sentence:

I attended school at Balboa Elementary School where Ms. Lee-Smith was principal.

3. Identify the common noun and collective noun in this sentence:

The class got to hear the vice-president.

Common Noun:

Collective Noun:

Nouns Practice Answers

1. Re-write these sentences correctly:

Washington D.C. is our nation's capital, and Ms. Gibson-Lee lived there for two years.

2. Identify the proper nouns in this sentence:

Balboa Elementary, Ms. Lee-Smith

3. Identify the common noun and collective noun in this sentence:

Common Noun: vice-president

Collective Noun: class

Sentence Dictation: Underline the nouns in this sentence.

Most Americans know that President Washington never lived in the White House because the capital was in New York.

Sentence Dictation Answers

Most Americans know that President Washington never lived in the White House because the capital was in New York.