

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #28

FOCUS Past Participles

A past participle is a modifier that defines, describes, or limits another word or words.

CONNECT TO WRITING

A past participle uses a helping verb (be— is, am, are, was, were), or (have—has, have, had) + a “__ed,” “__d,” “__t,” or “__en” added onto the base form of a verb to describe an action that happened in the past before another action. To avoid confusion, don’t put too many words between a past participle and the word or words it modifies. The helping verb shows past, present, or future actions.

Examples: I was defeated by a stronger opponent. I have defeated my opponent.

When used as an adjective, the past participle describes a condition in the past.

Example: Depressed, the child needed someone to listen to him.

Many of the common past participle forms are irregular and don’t use the “__ed,” “__d,” “__t,” or “__en” ending.

Example: The cat had caught a mouse (not catched or caughten).

PRACTICE

Underline the past participles and their helping verbs in the sentences below.

1. He has carefully listed his reasons for the purchase.
2. Paid a large amount for her services, the woman was happy to help.
3. Built by Native Americans, the caves were interesting.
4. They have never tried to sell any of their artwork.

WRITE

Write a sentence with a present participle acting as a verb and another sentence with a present participle acting as an adjective.
