Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Interactive Notebook (INB)

Thank you for your purchase of the Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Interactive Notebook.

What makes this Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics INB the best curriculum for you and your students?

- Each of the 64 lessons provides separate teacher and student formats for a full year of grammar, usage, and mechanics instruction. Student lessons are both printable PDFs and Google Slides. A lesson takes about 40 minutes to complete and includes these instructional components:
  - ✓ Cornell Notes Mechanics and Grammar Lesson with Online Links, and Resources
  - ✓ Guided Practice
  - ✓ Cartoon Response, Writing Application, and 3D Graphic Organizer
  - ✓ Interactive Google slides with drop and drag, fill-in-the-text box, and audio file activities for the parts of speech lessons
- Aligned to the Common Core Anchor Standards for Language and the Progressive Skills Review
- Biweekly unit tests including definition, identification, and application with optional Google forms
- Clear directions with the same instructional procedures for each lesson. Perfect for both the beginning teacher and expert grammarians
- The best online links to songs, posters, sentence diagrams, and more
- Diagnostic Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Assessments with 77 corresponding remedial worksheets... each with formative assessments, recording matrices for progress monitoring, and answers (of course) with optional Google forms, slides, and sheets
- Over 100 supplemental resources with remedial grammar, mechanics, and spelling worksheets, each with a formative assessment... perfect for below grade, EL, and Special Ed students. Ideal for differentiated instruction, learning centers, and homework (answers included).
- Simple and fun graphic organizers from Tangstar with clear directions and less mess for in-class or at home creation or interactive Google slides with a fun problem-solving secret agent theme
- Minimal prep and correction. Teachers don't have to create their own INB for student make-up work
- Flexible curriculum. Teachers choose what works for their schedules and class time. Complete all or part of each lesson. Curriculum aligned to all Grades 4–8 Common Core Language Strand Standards. Create cut and paste paper INBs or use the Google slides. See comprehensive alignment documents to select grade level Standards.
- Takes less class time than other interactive notebook programs. You do have other subjects to teach!

FAQs

✓ Do the Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Interactive Notebook (INB) lessons address all of the grades 4–8 Common Core Language Standards (L. 1, 2), the College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Language, and the Progressive Language Skills? Yes. See the alignment documents at the end of this book. This INB is a flexible curriculum; choose to teach all of part of each lesson. Two forty-minute lessons per week will cover all grades 4–8 Standards including the Progressive Skills Review for each grade level. Teachers can list the Standards, or the essential question, behavioral objective, Depth of Knowledge level, lesson topics, learning goals, I Can statements, etc. for students to write in the FOCUS section of each INB lesson.

✓ What's in each forty-minute INB lesson? Each lesson is designed in Cornell Notes format with online and additional print resources to reinforce each lesson component. Lessons include direct instruction in both grammar and mechanics, examples for students to add to their notes, guided practice sentences, a grammar cartoon response, and a writing application. Both student and teacher lesson pages are provided. The Google slides include the full text of the Cornell Notes lesson and the guided practice.

✓ How complicated is this program? Are the directions confusing? Each lesson follows the same directions and format, unlike other INBs. This program is user-friendly for both teacher and students.

✓ How flexible is this program? What if I don't want to do each part of the lesson each time? This curriculum is designed to support you, the teacher. Not all lesson components need to be taught each time to achieve results. Give the biweekly tests via Google forms or print them out. Give the diagnostic assessment via Google forms or print it. Assign the remedial worksheets via Google slides or print them.

✓ How are the unit tests designed? Biweekly unit tests consist of definition, identification, and writing application and take only about 20–25 minutes to complete. More time teaching and less time testing!

✓ How much prep and correction will I have to do to teach this program? Prep consists of copying three INB lesson pages for each student and the worksheets for individualized assessment-based instruction. Or don't copy anything with the Google slides. The teacher pages are formatted for in-class display or ZOOM. Students self-correct all lesson components. Students learn by correcting their own mistakes. Teachers should periodically collect the INBs or require students to share their slides to skim grade for neatness and completeness.

✓ Just how messy is this INB program? How much class time is wasted making this INB program into an art project? Every effort has been made to minimize coloring, cutting, and gluing or taping the creative 3D Graphic Organizers (provided by Tangstar at <http://tangstarscience.blogspot.ca/>). Unlike other INB programs, students don't have to copy down huge chunks of the lesson.

✓ Do I have to create my own INB to model for students and for absent student make-ups? No, it's all done for you. Just place the teacher pages in a binder for absent students to copy examples and self-correct.

✓ Are there resources for students who are below grade level? For my EL students? For my special ed students? Yes! The program includes plenty of remedial worksheets for extra practice in the Links and Resources sections.

✓ Are answers provided for EVERYTHING in this program, including the lessons, worksheets, and unit tests? Yes, except for individual writing application responses, which will vary.

✓ Who is the amazing cartoonist? David Rickert. Check out David's site at <http://davidrickert.com/>.

Materials Preparation and Google Apps

Copy the three student lesson pages for each INB lesson and the biweekly unit tests for all students. Students will complete four lessons before taking the biweekly unit test.

Or collect student gmails for the Google slides and forms. The program works in and out of Google Classroom.

After administering the grammar and usage, mechanics, and spelling patterns assessments following completion of the eight-lesson Spelling Rules and Parts of Speech Unit, record student names and slashes to indicate unmastered grammar, usage, mechanics, and spelling skills on the progress monitoring matrices. Total the number of unmastered skills for each assessment item and copy the number of assessment-based worksheets. Place the worksheets in accessible files for students. Or use the self-correcting Google forms and sheets for the test and progress monitoring matrix.

Copy the Grammar and Mechanics and Spelling Pattern Worksheet answers and create three-ring binder Answer Booklets. I recommend six Answer Booklets per classroom so that students will not have to wait to grade their individualized worksheets.

Provide class sets of scissors, colored pencils, crayons, and highlighters. Also provide rulers to align the 3D graphic organizers properly and crease the folds.

Decisions to make...

Decide on using composition books or spiral notebooks for an in-class or at-home paper interactive notebook or the Google slides. Or some of both!

If creating the paper interactive notebooks, decide on glue, glue sticks, or tape. Most teachers suggest using name brand white glue and instruct students to use small dots, rather than glue squiggle lines for gluing. Tape also works well.

Decide whether you will have students cut out and glue or tape the "input" page (the Cornell notes) on the right or left page of the INB and the "output" page (the grammar cartoon, Cartoon Response, Writing Application, and 3D Graphic Organizer) on the opposite. The traditional INB format is "input" on the right and "output" on the left.

These digital files are included in the program. Access the Google slides, forms, and sheets via the links.

Program Directions and Sample Lesson

1. Students pick up copies of the lesson, glue or tape, scissors, colored pencils, crayons, and highlighters.
2. Type or write the FOCUS on the Cornell notes teacher page. Options: the essential question, behavioral objective, Standard, Depth of Knowledge level, lesson topics, learning goals, I Can statements, etc.
3. Display, read, explain, and annotate the mechanics and grammar lessons on the teacher "input" (the Cornell notes) projection or page and direct students to copy the examples and your annotations on their student "input" (the Cornell notes) pages as you teach.
4. Check out the online links and resources listed in the left column to see if you want to use these as part of the lesson.
5. Provide time for students to write marginal notes in the left column of the student "input" pages, titled "Cues." Options: main ideas, comments, questions, or connections to related mechanics or grammar content, skills, or rules, or any additional content from the left column of the teacher "input" page, titled "Resources."
6. Students write a brief SUMMARY/REFLECTION for both the mechanics and grammar lessons (optional).
7. Students complete the guided practice. The focus is on applying what has been learned in each lesson.
8. Display the guided practice answers in red (formatted for display). Direct students to self-correct and edit. Many teachers will choose to award points for this task.
9. Students study the cartoon and complete both the Cartoon Response and Writing Application sentences on the second student "output" page.
10. Display the grammar cartoon on the teacher "output" page and read the comment bubble(s) and caption. Write the Cartoon Response answers on the board and direct students to self-correct.
11. Call on students to share their Writing Application sentences (answers vary). Teachers may choose to award points for these tasks.
12. Display the 3D Graphic Organizer and review directions. Students write examples and sentences on the back of the flaps and color or highlight to match the front and back flaps.
13. Students cut out and glue or tape the "input" page (the Cornell notes) at the top and left edge of the notebook page and the Practice page on the opposite notebook page. Students cut out and glue or tape the "output" cartoon, Cartoon Response, and Writing Application as one rectangle at the top and left edge of the opposite notebook page. Students cut out and glue or tape the 3D Graphic Organizer at the bottom of this page.
14. Students return materials and clean up.
15. After completing the eight-lesson Spelling Rules and Parts of Speech Review Unit, administer the Diagnostic Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Assessment (printable PDF or self-correcting Google form). Record the results on the progress monitoring matrix (printable PDF or Google sheets). Assign remedial worksheets or slides to individual students according to the assessment results. The remedial Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics slides includes short instructional videos.
16. Administer the biweekly unit test (printable PDF or Google forms) after each set of four lessons.
17. Administer the final exam (self-correcting Google forms and sheets).

Use a personal pronoun, not a reflexive pronoun after prepositions which show location or position. Examples: I walked beside her. NOT I walked beside herself.	Reflexive pronouns end in "self" or "selves" and refer to the subject of a sentence. The reflexive pronoun cannot serve as the subject of the sentence. Reflexive pronouns are necessary to the meaning of the sentence and usually follow verbs or prepositions. Examples: Pete gave himself a break and grabbed a cookie for himself. These are the reflexive pronouns: myself, ourselves, yourself, yourselves, himself (not hisself), herself, itself, and themselves. Intensive pronouns are used to emphasize subject or object case nouns or pronouns. Unlike reflexive pronouns, removing the intensive pronoun does not change the meaning of the sentence. Intensive pronouns generally follow nouns or pronouns in the sentence and are not separated by commas. Resources	Grammar and Usage Notes
Grammarians have two basic views about language. The traditional view is that grammar consists of a set of consistent rules. The other view is that grammar is flexible and changeable.  These views of grammar differ regarding usage of the their possessive. The traditional grammarian would argue that because their is a plural possessive, it can only refer to or replace plural nouns. Those grammarians holding the other view would argue that because there is no singular possessive pronoun which isn't gender specific, the their is permissible to refer to or replace singular nouns.	A personal pronoun must match singular pronouns to singular nouns or pronouns and plural pronouns to plural nouns or pronouns.  Example: Julie (She) has their own style.  Revision: Julie (She) has her own style.  Often number errors are made when trying to avoid gender-specific pronouns. Revise by making the antecedent nouns plural.  Example: The student ate their lunch.  Revision: The students ate their lunches.  Or revise the sentence without the pronouns.  Revision: The students ate lunch.  A personal pronoun must also be in the same person as its antecedent. Pronouns are in the first, second, or third person. Revise pronoun person problems by matching the pronoun person to its antecedent.  Example: Julie (She) has your own style.  Revision: Julie (She) has her own style.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Unit Tests

The biweekly Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Unit Test is designed to assess student mastery of the content, skills, or rules after teaching four mechanics and four grammar and usage lessons. For example, if the teacher completes lessons 1 and 2 on Tuesday and Thursday for the first week and lessons 3 and 4 on Tuesday and Thursday for the second week, students will be prepared to take the unit test the following day (on Friday).

Administrative Options

The Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Unit Test has been designed to take only 15–20 minutes for most students to complete. More time teaching and less time testing! Teachers may elect to give the unit tests every four weeks by combining two of each test to assess mastery of eight lessons. Teachers may choose to give the printable version or the Google forms test format.

Some teachers choose to allow students to use their notes on the test. If choosing this option, teachers may require students to provide their own examples for the sentence application section of the test.

Test Structure and Grading

Each Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Unit Test has eight matching questions: two from each mechanics and two from each grammar and usage lesson. Students are required to match definitions and examples. The sentence application section also has eight test problems: two from each mechanics and two from each grammar and usage lesson. Students are required to apply their understanding of the mechanics and grammar and usage content, skills, or rules in the writing context through original sentence applications or revisions. Test answers for each matching section are provided at the end of the unit tests.

Test Review Options

Pretest

Teachers may review key grammar, usage, and mechanics content, skills, and rules the day before the unit test. Students should review their Cornell notes.

Posttest

Teachers may choose to review the matching section answers of the test and/or re-teach any deficiencies. Or teachers may elect to rely upon the individualized assessment-based instruction of the Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheets or slides to fill in any gaps.

As the writers of the Common Core State Standards note regarding the Language Strand Standards, much of the acquisition of the grammar, usage, and mechanics standards is recursive in nature and requires cyclical instruction as is provided throughout the program.

Cartoon Response

Identify the non-Standard usage in both sentences in the bubble comments.

Writing Application

Revise the non-standard usage in the bubble comments with the present progressive verb tense.

Directions: 1. Color or highlight. 2. Cut at the solid lines, fold at the dotted line, and glue or tape the tab. 3. Revise the non-standard English on the back of the flap.

Non-Standard Forms of the "to be" Verb

"Desmond be so mean," don't you think?

"I'm not sure. His friends was all saying that," but he always been nice to me.

Diagnostic Grammar and Usage Assessment

Directions for Preparation, Administration, Correction, and Recording the Data

The purpose of this whole class assessment is to determine which of the previous grade-level Common Core grammar and usage Standards have and have not been mastered.

Preparation

This four-page assessment should be copied back-to-back for each student. The test may be administered and corrected on Scantrons® or GradeCam.

Administration

Inform students that this is a test on grammar and usage. Tell them to read each set of directions as they take the test. Read the first set of directions aloud to get them started. The assessment is given “whole class” and is un-timed. Most students finish in 20–25 minutes.

Correction

Grade the assessment, marking errors.

Recording the Data

Write the names of your students in alphabetical order on the recording matrix or copy and paste your class rosters. Record the grammar and usage deficits for each student in numerical order on the Diagnostic Grammar and Usage Assessment Mastery Matrix (pages 472–473). Mark a / for each error in the student’s row on the matrix and assign that Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet for remediation.

Diagnostic Mechanics Assessment

Directions for Preparation, Administration, Correction, and Recording the Data

The purpose of this whole class assessment is to determine which of the previous Common Core grade-level mechanics Standards have and have not been mastered.

Preparation

This two-page assessment should be copied back-to-back for each student.

Administration

Inform students that this is a test on punctuation and capitalization. Tell them to read each set of directions as they take the test—especially the boldface directions. Read the first set of directions aloud to get them started. Remind students to print neatly.

The assessment is given “whole class” and is un-timed. Most students finish in 10–15 minutes.

Correction

Grade the assessment according to the directions on the Diagnostic Mechanics Assessment Answers page.

Recording the Data

Write the names of your students in alphabetical order on the recording matrix or copy and paste your class rosters. Record the grammar and usage deficits for each student in numerical order on the Diagnostic Mechanics Assessment Mastery Matrix (pages 474–475). Mark a / for each error in the student’s row on the matrix and assign that Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet for remediation. Ignore errors unrelated to the targeted assessment items.

Diagnostic Mechanics Assessment

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheets

The Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheets are designed to help students learn previous grade-level Language Conventions Standards. Worksheets focus on the Common Core Language Strand L.1, L.2, and the Language Progressive Skills Standards. Each worksheet includes concise definitions of the rule, skill, or concept with examples, a writing application, a practice section, and a brief formative assessment. Grammar, usage, and mechanics definitions, rules, and skills complement those found in the Language Conventions lessons.

Preparation

1. Administer both the Diagnostic Mechanics Assessment and the Diagnostic Grammar and Usage Assessment, correct, and chart the individual skills that your students have not yet mastered on the recording matrices. Record a slash (/) for not-mastered skills, and leave the box blank for mastered skills.
2. Count and total the slashes (/) for each of the 63 grammar, usage, and mechanics components to determine how many of each Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet you will need to copy. Group the worksheets in separate file folders for students to access. Also copy some sets of the Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet Answers and place these in three-ring binders labeled “Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet Answers.”
3. Display one of the Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheets to introduce the instructional components and explain the directions to your students. Students first read the FOCUS and CONNECT TO WRITING sections and then complete the PRACTICE section. Tell them not to complete the WRITE section (the formative assessment) until they have self-corrected the PRACTICE section in a colored pencil or pen, so that they can learn from their mistakes before completing the last section. The formative assessment determines whether the student has or has not mastered the grammar, usage, or mechanics content, rule, or skill.

Step by Step Directions

1. Tell students to begin with the lower numbered worksheets on the recording matrices and to complete only those worksheets indicated by slashes (/). Tell them that they have already mastered those language convention components.
2. When a student has completed all sections of the Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet, except for the ending WRITE section (the formative assessment), the student uses the “Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet Answers” binder to self-correct and self-edit in a colored pencil or pen. Tell students that you do not award a grade for this practice, so there would be no benefit from looking at the answers first. Remind students that they will often learn from their mistakes, especially when they identify and correct them.
3. Next, the student completes the WRITE section and comes up to your desk to mini-conference with you for thirty seconds to review the worksheet.
4. If the student has self-corrected and self-edited the PRACTICE section and “passed” the WRITE formative assessment, change the slash (/) into an “X” for mastery on the appropriate box on the matrix and record an A on the student’s worksheet. Convert the A to points if you use a point system for grading.
5. If the student did not master the rule, skill, or concept on the formative assessment, re-teach during the mini-conference. Then direct the student to re-do the formative assessments and return for re-correction.

Helpful Hints

- Mastery criteria on the WRITE formative assessment are decided by the teacher. If the student has followed directions and correctly applied the rule, skill, or concept, the student has certainly mastered the Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet. Make sure to ignore irrelevant errors, such as spelling mistakes, in determining mastery; however, do mark and point these out to the student.
- Remember that a student can miss items within the PRACTICE section and still master the grammar or usage skill or concept if the student has self-corrected and self-edited and the criteria have been met on the formative assessment.
- Limit the length of your mini-conference line to three students. Waiting students can sign up for their places in line on the board and then work on their next worksheet until their turn arrives to conference.
- Post the recording matrices on the wall with data listed by student names or student identification numbers. Allow students to use pencil to change the slash (/) into an “X” for mastery on the appropriate box on the matrix.
- Set an expectation as to how many Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheets must be completed per week.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #2

FOCUS Common Nouns

A common noun is an idea, person, place, or thing.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Whenever possible, use specific common nouns rather than general common nouns. A common noun can be a single word, a group of words, or a hyphenated word and is capitalized only at the start of a sentence.

Examples: It takes self-control                      idea for a teenager    person to drive to school                                        place in a sports car.    thing

PRACTICE

Sort the following common nouns as an idea, person, place, or thing in the correct columns:

mountain, friendship, teacher, neighborhood, food, self-image, freedom, toy, fire-fighter, cousin, rock, country, lamp stand, football stadium, police officer, self-confidence, grandfather clock, family room, brother-in-law, world peace

IDEA	PERSON	PLACE	THING
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

WRITE

Compose four sentences, using a common noun from each category. Use none of the common nouns listed on this worksheet. Be as specific as possible.

idea _____

person _____

place _____

thing _____

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #3

---

FOCUS Pronouns

A pronoun is a word used in place of a proper noun or common noun.

Examples: Ted is ready. He is never late.

The game has already started. Ted will watch it at home.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Pronouns are used to avoid repeating the same noun over and over again. Pronouns are used in the first person, second person, or third person points of view. Avoid first and second person pronouns in essays designed to inform or convince your reader.

The first person pronoun stands for the one speaking.

Examples: Singular I, me, my, mine, myself
Plural we, us, our, ours, ourselves

The second person pronoun stands for the person to whom one is speaking.

Examples: Singular you, your, yours, yourself
Plural you, your, yours, yourselves

The third person pronoun stands for the one spoken about.

Examples: Singular he, she, it, him, her, its, his, hers, himself, herself, itself
Plural they, them, their, theirs, themselves

PRACTICE

Underline the pronouns in this phone conversation.

“Hello,” said Susan.

“Is this the owner of the car for sale?” the caller asks.

“It, is I,” replies Susan. “Who is calling?”

“The one paying you full price for your car. My name is Marcy. What’s yours?”

“Susan,” she says. “But let me get my husband. Actually, he is selling his car, not mine.

“Suit yourself, says Marcy. Put him on the phone.”

WRITE

Finish the rest of this phone conversation, using at least two different pronouns.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #4

FOCUS     Adjectives

An adjective modifies a proper noun, a common noun, or a pronoun and answers Which one? How many? or What kind?

CONNECT TO WRITING

Adjectives usually are placed before nouns and pronouns. Whenever possible, use specific, rather than general adjectives. For example, adjectives such as interesting, nice, and exciting are general adjectives.

Examples:	Type of Adjective Which One? How Many? What Kind?	Too General That park had some playgrounds swimming pools	Specific That city park had two playgrounds huge swimming pools.
-----------	--	---	--

PRACTICE

Sort the following italicized adjectives into the correct columns:

twenty-story building, most sports, juicier hamburgers, these games, that bright color, a dozen flowers, the muddy Missouri River, few announcements, this idea, those desserts, navel orange, thousands of islands, spicy pizza, certain groups, loud rap music

Which One?	How Many?	What Kind?
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

WRITE

Compose three sentences, using an adjective from each category. Use none of the adjectives listed on this worksheet. Be as specific as possible.

Which One? _____

How Many? _____

What Kind? _____

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #5

FOCUS Verbs

A verb completes three types of actions:

- A verb can mentally act. Examples: think, like, wonder, know
- A verb can physically act. Examples: run, talk, eat
- A verb can also link a noun or pronoun to another word or words in the sentence. These are known as state of being verbs.

Examples: is, am, are, was, were, be, being, been, appear, become, feel, grow, keep, look, remain, seem, smell, sound, stay, taste

CONNECT TO WRITING

A verb can be singular or plural and must match the noun or pronoun it acts upon or modifies. Singular nouns often match verbs ending in s. Plural nouns often use verbs that don't end in s.

Examples: Amanda walks. They walk.

Some verbs add a helping verb in front of the verb. Helping verbs include the “to be” verbs: is, am, are, was, were, be, being, been; the “to do” verbs: do, does, did; the “to have” verbs: has, have, had; and the modals: can, could, may, might, must, shall, should, will, and would.

Examples: Tim was thinking. He did not need her help, but she had offered, and he might need assistance later.

PRACTICE

Identify each type of verb action in the parentheses following each verb (mental, physical, state of being). Then underline each of the helping verbs.

I know ( ) that he had run ( ) a full mile before, but he might be ( ) too tired right now. He did walk ( ) a mile yesterday.

WRITE

Compose three of your own sentences with the three types of verb actions. Include at least one singular and plural verb plus at least one helping verb.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #6

FOCUS Adverbs

An adverb describes a verb, an adjective, or an adverb and answers What degree? How? Where? or When? The adverb may be found before or after the word that it modifies.

Examples: Trey walked more What degree? carefully How?
late at night When?
there at the docks. Where?

CONNECT TO WRITING

As a matter of good writing style, place shorter adverbial phrases in front of longer ones.

Example: The family walks around the block after every Thanksgiving Dinner.

Explanation: The shorter adverbial phrase around the block is properly placed before the longer after every Thanksgiving Dinner.

As a matter of good writing style, place specific adverbs before general ones.

Example: It should be exactly where I said, next to her, or somewhere over there.

Explanation: The more specific adverbs exactly where and next are properly placed before the more general somewhere over there.

PRACTICE

Sort these adverbs into the following categories: often, everywhere, slowly, one o'clock, mostly, carefully, nearby, later, here, less, easily, mainly.

What Degree	How	Where	When

WRITE

Compose four sentences with adverbs from each category. Use none of the adverbs listed on this worksheet.

What Degree _____

How _____

Where _____

When _____

FOCUS      Prepositional Phrases

A preposition is a word that shows some relationship to an object (a proper noun, a common noun, or a pronoun). The preposition is always part of a phrase. A phrase is a group of related words without a noun and connected verb. The preposition asks “What?” and the object follows with the answer. A preposition tells when, where, or how something happens.

Examples:

When it happens:	Our teacher leaned against the wall.	against what? ...the wall
Where it happens:	Under the bed the cat hid.	Under what? ...the bed
How it happens:	We travelled by bus.	by what? ...bus

CONNECT TO WRITING

We often end spoken sentences with a preposition, but avoid this in your writing.

Example: Spoken sentence—“Who will you go to?” Written sentence—“To whom will you go?”

Here is a list of commonly-used prepositions. Memorizing this list will help you notice prepositions in your reading and use them in your writing.

aboard, about, above, according to, across, after, against, along, among, around, as, as to, at, before, behind, below, beneath, beside, between, beyond, but, by, despite, down, during, except, for, from, in, inside, instead of, into, in place of, in spite of, like, near, next, of, off, on, onto, outside, out of, over, past, regardless of, since, than, through, throughout, to, toward, under, underneath, unlike, until, up, upon, with, within, without

PRACTICE

Underline the prepositions, and [bracket] their objects. Then draw an arrow from each preposition to its object.

“I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands: one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.” These words are spoken in schools throughout America each day. The right hand is placed over the heart and eyes are focused on the flag. Children stand to say the pledge and give respect to our country.

WRITE

Compose your own sentence or two with three different prepositional phrases.

FOCUS Coordinating Conjunctions

A conjunction joins words, phrases, or clauses together.

CONNECT TO WRITING

A coordinating conjunction connects words, phrases, or clauses with related meanings. The memory trick FANBOYS (For-And-Nor-But-Or-Yet-So) may help you remember the common two or three-letter coordinating conjunctions.

Example: Two desserts are fine, but three are better.

PRACTICE

Read the following short story and fill in the blanks with the correct coordinating conjunctions.

Liz _____ Pam both wanted to see the new scary movie, _____ they were afraid. The friends did not want to go alone, _____ did they want to go with their parents. The girls decided to get more friends to go, _____ they bought a dozen tickets _____ treated ten of their friends to a free movie. Liz planned on buying popcorn, _____ not drinks for her friends. Pam did not have much money, _____ she decided to buy candy for all of her friends.

The movie was scary, _____ it was fun to see it with lots of friends. Both Liz _____ Pam say that their friends will have to pay their own way the next time. They would like to always treat their friends but they can't, _____ it would just be too expensive.

WRITE

Compose your own sentence or two using two or more coordinating conjunctions.

FOCUS Subordinating Conjunctions

A subordinating conjunction begins a dependent clause.

CONNECT TO WRITING

A subordinating conjunction begins a dependent clause. A dependent clause is a noun and connected verb that does not express a complete thought. It depends upon connecting to a complete thought to form a sentence.

Example: Although my friends had already seen it, they saw the show a second time.

This memory trick will help you remember the common subordinating conjunctions:

Bud is wise, but hot! AAA WWW

Bud: Before, unless, despite (in spite of); is: in order that, since,

wise: while, if, since, even though (if); but: because, until, that; hot: how, once, than!

AAA: After; Although (though); As (As if, As long as, As much as, As soon as, As though)

WWW: Whether; When (Whenever); Where (Wherever)

PRACTICE

Read the following short story and fill in the blanks with the correct subordinating conjunctions.

_____ Salma went to bed, she set her alarm to wake up early. The next day was going to be an important one for Salma. _____ she was meeting with the principal to receive a special citizenship award. She woke up _____ she heard the alarm and crept downstairs to make her breakfast. _____ she was up early, her father had already eaten his breakfast and had left for work. _____ her father knew that Salma would be short on time that morning, he packed a lunch for his daughter and put it on the table. _____ she would be sure to see it. _____ her father's help, Salma did leave the house a bit late.

FOCUS Correlative Conjunctions

Correlative conjunctions join words, phrases, or clauses together.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Correlative conjunctions are pairs of conjunctions used in the same sentence that indicate a certain relationship. Common correlative conjunctions include the following:

both...and      either...or      whether...or      neither...nor

Example: Either we work together, or we will fail together.

PRACTICE

Read the following short story and fill in the blanks with the correct correlative conjunctions.

Both Taylor _____ I love to play basketball. After school we are _____ playing one-on-one out on the playground _____ talking about our next league game. It's great to be on the same team as my best friend, even though our team has only won one game this season. Our coach always tells us, "It is not _____ you win _____ lose that matters; it's how you play the game." _____ Taylor _____ I are the best players on our team, but we are getting better with each game. _____ Taylor and I plan to practice a lot over the summer. Hopefully, we will be on the same team again next year.

WRITE

Compose your own sentence or two with two pairs of correlative conjunctions.

FOCUS Simple and Complete Subjects

The simple subject is the common noun, proper noun, or pronoun that the verb acts upon. The subject is the “do-er” of the sentence.

CONNECT TO WRITING

The simple subject tells whom or what the sentence is about. When additional words help name or describe the simple subject, this is known as a complete subject.

Examples: A nurse assisted the patient.

The police officer helped prevent the accident.

Simple Subject

Complete Subject

The simple subject is usually found at the start of a declarative sentence. To find the simple subject of the sentence, look for the main verb and the common noun, proper noun, or pronoun that the verb acts upon. The simple subject is never part of a prepositional phrase.

PRACTICE

Circle or highlight the simple subjects found in the story below.

Vacationing in Mexico, an experienced traveler will visit three famous cities. Tasco, known as the “Silver City” because of its rich silver mines, welcomes thousands of tourists each summer to see its timeless architecture. The cathedral impresses visitors from around the world. A second city, Guadalajara, shows off its rich colonial heritage. Having one of the most beautiful town squares, this city gives any traveler a complete history of Mexico. If given the opportunity, no one should hesitate to visit the capital. Mexico City has many sites of archeological importance, including pyramids of the Aztec Empire. A trip to Mexico connects the traveler with his or her historical roots.

What is the complete subject in the first sentence of the above story?

FOCUS      Compound Subjects

The compound subject has two or more connected common nouns, proper nouns, or pronouns that one verb acts upon. The words “and,” “or,” or “nor” connect them. The compound subject is the “do-er” of the sentence. It tells whom or what the sentence is about.

Examples:      The girl and her mother walked to the store.

                         Running quickly down the slope were Suzanne, Becky, and Carson.

When additional words help name or describe the compound subject, this is known as a complete compound subject.

CONNECT TO WRITING

The compound subject is usually found at the start of a declarative sentence. To find the compound subject of the sentence, first identify any prepositional phrase. The compound subject is not part of a prepositional phrase.

PRACTICE

Circle or highlight the complete compound subjects in the article below.

In terms of difficulty, running 28 miles is quite an accomplishment, and the marathon always fills the stadium or arena with an eager audience. Track fans and casual spectators enjoy the competition of this oldest Olympic event. Basketball and ice-hockey also get high television ratings. The “Dream Team,” composed of the best National Basketball Association players, or the United States hockey team, composed of professional hockey all-stars, always entertains the Olympic audience. These two popular events, as well as the track-and-field contests, highlight the Winter or Summer Olympics for most sports fans.

FOCUS Simple and Complete Predicates

The simple predicate is the verb that acts upon the subject of the sentence. It does the work of the “do-er” of the sentence. When additional words help describe the simple predicate, this is known as a complete predicate. The complete predicate consists of the rest of the sentence other than the subject.

Examples: Michael hurt his hand. Simple Predicate
She had become a young lady.
They should have listened to me.
An angry man tried to run me off the road. Complete Predicate

CONNECT TO WRITING

To find the simple predicate, first identify the subject and ask “What?” The answer to this question should be the predicate. The simple predicate usually follows the subject in a sentence. However, it can be placed before the subject in a question (Was it your mother’s purse?). The subject can also be suggested, but not stated in the sentence (Look out!). Often, the suggested subject is you.

PRACTICE

Underline the simple subjects and [bracket] the simple predicates found in the story below.

Ice cream always has pleased young and old alike as a favorite summertime dessert. One ice cream that pleases many is Neapolitan. This treat has chocolate, strawberry, and vanilla all in one. Rocky Road delights children of all ages with small bits of marshmallows and nuts in a rich chocolate ice cream. For some, the nuts or marshmallows may cause an allergic reaction. A creamy double scoop on a sugar waffle cone tastes great. Eating too much ice cream can be an addictive behavior.

WRITE

Compose a sentence with a simple predicate and then one with a complete predicate. Underline the subjects and bracket the simple and complete predicates.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #14

---

FOCUS      Compound Predicates

The compound predicate has two or more connected verbs that act upon the same subject of the sentence. These verbs do the work of the “do-er” of the sentence.

Examples: Michael fell and hurt his hand. She had become and still remained a young lady.

CONNECT TO WRITING

To find the compound predicate, first identify the subject and ask “What?” The answer to this question should be the predicate. A connecting word such as “and,” “or,” or “but” is usually placed between the verbs. When additional words help describe the compound predicate, this is known as a complete compound predicate.

Use compound predicates to make your writing more concise (brief), clear, and readable.

Examples: Instead of the following: Rob studied the textbook for the test. Then, he practiced the vocabulary for the test. After practicing the vocabulary, he memorized the poem—all to prepare for the test. Try a compound predicate such as in this sentence: Rob studied the textbook, practiced the vocabulary, and memorized the poem to prepare for the test.

PRACTICE

Underline the simple subjects and [bracket] the compound predicates in the story below.

Of all the books by Mark Twain, two works stand out and are remembered as his best. Twain’s description of life as a riverboat captain in Life on the Mississippi both entertains and informs. After reading this book, one will learn and will understand what the phrase “Mark Twain” means. A second novel, Huckleberry Finn, teaches and preaches about how badly people can treat each other. Huck Finn struggles with and triumphs over the evils of slavery.

Re-write the following sentences into one sentence with a compound predicate:

Debbie walked into the room. Next, she sat down in the chair. And, she heaved a sigh of relief.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #15

FOCUS Simple Sentences / Types of Sentences

A simple sentence has one independent clause, but no dependent clause. An independent clause has a noun connected to a verb that expresses a complete thought. A dependent clause has a noun connected to a verb that does not express a complete thought.

Examples: Jim left class (independent clause) before he finished the project (dependent clause).

CONNECT TO WRITING

Complete sentences can be identified by their purposes.

A declarative sentence makes a statement and has a period as ending punctuation.

Example: Joanna went shopping at the mall.

An interrogative sentence asks a question and has a question mark as ending punctuation.

Example: Would you mind cooking your own dinner tonight?

An imperative sentence gives a command or makes a request and has a period as ending punctuation. Frequently, the you is implied (suggested, but not stated).

Examples: Don't tell me what to do (command). Mother sing a song for us (request).

An exclamatory sentence expresses surprise or strong emotions and has an exclamation point as ending punctuation.

Example: I can't believe you said that!

Remember: A complete sentence—

1. Tells a complete thought.
2. Has both a subject and a predicate.
3. Has the voice drop down at the end of a statement and the voice go up at the end of a question.

PRACTICE

Identify the following simple sentences as declarative, interrogative, imperative, or exclamatory in the space provided. The ending punctuation has been omitted.

1. Look at me when I talk to you _____
2. That answer really shocked me _____
3. Why should I have to wait _____
4. Tom asked me a question _____

WRITE

FOCUS      Compound Sentences

A compound sentence has two or more independent clauses but no dependent clauses. An independent clause has a noun connected to a verb that tells a complete thought. A dependent clause has a noun connected to a verb that does not tell a complete thought.

Example: Ken asked his teacher for his homework, but he didn't follow her advice.

CONNECT TO WRITING

The independent clauses are joined by a semicolon or a comma followed by a coordinating conjunction (FANBOYS: for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so).

Compound sentences must have a clear relationship between the independent clauses. Having a variety of sentence lengths is a mark of good writing. Avoid placing two compound sentences next to each other in the same paragraph.

PRACTICE

Use the coordinating conjunctions (FANBOYS) to join the following independent clauses in the spaces provided. The ending punctuation has been omitted.

1. I enjoy watching old television shows      the new ones are better

2. Do you want vanilla      do you want strawberry

---

Use a semicolon to join the following independent clauses in the spaces provided below each pair. The ending punctuation has been omitted.

3. No one really wants to go      they just feel like they must attend

---

4. This route takes too long      there must be another way

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #17

FOCUS      Complex Sentences

A complex sentence has an independent clause and at least one dependent clause. An independent clause has a noun connected to a verb that expresses a complete thought. A dependent clause has a noun connected to a verb that does not express a complete thought.

Example: Ty finished his work (independent clause) + before he ate lunch (dependent clause) = Ty finished his work before he ate lunch. (complex sentence)

CONNECT TO WRITING

Complex sentences can help explain the relationship between complicated ideas. If starting a sentence with one of these dependent clauses, follow the clause with a comma:

Adjectival Clauses modify nouns or pronouns. These pronouns begin many adjectival clauses: who, whose, on (for, of) whom to refer to people; that refers to people or things; and which refers only to things.

Example: John, whose work is well-known, won the prize.

Adverbial Clauses modify a verb or another adverb. Subordinating conjunctions begin adverbial clauses. This memory trick will help you remember the common subordinating conjunctions:

Bud is wise, but hot! AAA WWW

Bud: Before, unless, despite (in spite of); is: in order that, since;

wise: while, if, since, even though (if); but: because, until, that; hot: how, once, than!

AAA: After; Although (though); As (As if, As long as, As much as, As soon as, As though)

WWW: Whether; When (Whenever); Where (Wherever)

Example: As long as she can wait, they will wait.

PRACTICE

Re-write the following simple sentences into complex sentences in the spaces below.

1. he will be able to go outside to play      the boy practices his trombone      as soon as

2. whose      tonight we celebrate a special young lady,      achievement is special

WRITE

Write your own complex sentence.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #18

FOCUS      Compound-Complex Sentences

A compound-complex sentence has two or more independent clauses and at least one dependent (subordinate) clause. An independent clause has a noun connected to a verb that expresses a complete thought. A dependent clause has a noun connected to a verb that does not express a complete thought.

Example: Before he ate his lunch (dependent clause) +
Ty completed all his chores (independent clause) + and he read the newspaper (independent clause) =
Before he ate his lunch, Ty completed all his chores and he read the newspaper.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Dependent clauses can be placed at the start, in the middle, or at the end of sentences.

PRACTICE

Rearrange the following independent clauses and dependent clauses into compound-complex sentences in the spaces below. You may need to switch around the order, add, or delete words.

and then John told a campfire story    the campers roasted marshmallows    after the sun set he knew the sailor    but the sailor did not recognize him    since the captain had a beard although he knew better    he just would not listen    because he could not teach her

FOCUS Fixing Run-Ons

A sentence run-on has two independent clauses connected together as if they were one sentence. An independent clause has a noun connected to a verb that tells a complete thought.

CONNECT TO WRITING

To change sentence run-ons into complete sentences, try the following:

- Separate the run-on into two or more sentences.
Example: Luis told his brother he told his sister, too.      Run-On Luis told his brother. He told his sister, too.      Complete
- Add a semicolon between the clauses.
Example: Mary let him have it, she knew what she was doing.      Run-On Mary let him have it; she knew what she was doing.      Complete
- Add a comma and then a conjunction after the first sentence.
Example: I like her, she doesn't like me.      Run-On
I like her, but she doesn't like me.      Complete
- Add a subordinating conjunction to one of the clauses.
Example: Max was injured, he was still the best.      Run-On Even though Max was injured, he was still the best.      Complete
- Change the second clause to a phrase starting with an “__ing” word.
Example: They went to school, they looked for him.      Run-On They went to school, looking for him.      Complete

PRACTICE

Change the following sentence run-on into complete sentences.

Separate the run-on into two or more sentences:

Jonathan seemed very selfish he never shared with the other children.

Use a comma and then a coordinating conjunction after the first sentence or a semicolon:

Ms. Clements always prepared well for her lesson plans the results paid off.

Change the second clause to a phrase starting with an “__ing” word:

Nicco enjoyed video games, he played only after completing his chores.

WRITE

Revise the first PRACTICE sentence, using the subordinating conjunction because.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #21

FOCUS Subject Case Pronouns

Pronouns are in the subject case when they are used as the sentence subject or when they identify or refer to the subject. These are the subject case pronouns:

Singular—I, you, he, she, it Plural—we, you, they

CONNECT TO WRITING

Pronouns take the subject case in three grammatical forms:

- If the pronoun is the sentence subject. The sentence subject is the “do-er” of the sentence.
Example: She and I attended the concert.
- If the pronoun is a predicate nominative. A predicate nominative follows a “to be” verb (is, am, are, was, were, be, being, been) and identifies or refers to the subject.
Example: The students who got into trouble are they.
- If the pronoun is part of an appositive, such as after than or as. An appositive is a noun or pronoun placed next to another noun or pronoun to identify or explain it.
Example: Marty is smarter than I.

To test whether the pronoun is in the subject case, try these tricks:

- Rephrase to check if the pronoun sounds right.
Example: The last one to arrive was he. Rephrase—He was the last one to arrive.
- Drop other nouns or pronouns in a compound subject or object to check if the remaining pronoun sounds right. Remember that English is a polite language; the first person pronouns (I, me, ours, mine) are placed last in compound subjects or objects.
Example: John and I play video games. Drop and check—I play video games.

PRACTICE

Fill in the blanks to identify the subject case pronouns: S for a sentence subject, PN for a predicate nominative, or an A for an appositive.

The women in the clown costumes must be she ____ and her mother. We ____ didn't recognize them at first, but at least I ____ asked, “Who were they ____?” Sue and he ____ arrived at the party earlier than I ____, but no one came as early as she ____.

WRITE

Compose your own sentences, using a pronoun as a sentence subject, a pronoun as a predicate nominative, and a pronoun as an appositive.

FOCUS Object Case Pronouns

Pronouns are in the object case when they are used as direct objects, indirect objects of verbs, and as objects of prepositions. These are the object case pronouns:

Singular—me, you, him, her, it      Plural—us, you, them

CONNECT TO WRITING

Pronouns take the object case in three grammatical forms:

- If the pronoun is the direct object. The direct object receives the action of the verb.
Example: The challenge excited him.
- If the pronoun is an indirect object of a verb. The indirect object is placed between a verb and its direct object. It tells to what, to whom, for what, or for whom.
Example: Robert gave him a king-size candy bar.
- If the pronoun is an object of a preposition. A preposition shows some relationship or position between a proper noun, a common noun, or a pronoun and its object. The preposition asks “What?” and the object provides the answer.
Example: The fly buzzed around her and past them by me.
- If the pronoun connects to an infinitive. An infinitive has a to + the base form of a verb.
Example: I want him to give the speech.

To test whether the pronoun is in the object case, try these tricks:

- Rephrase to check if the pronoun sounds right.
Example: Joe smiled at all of them. Rephrase—At all of them Joe smiled.
- Drop other nouns or pronouns when there is a compound subject and check if the remaining pronoun sounds right. Remember that English is a polite language; the first person pronouns (I, me, ours, mine) are placed last in compound subjects or objects.
Example: She gave Kathy and me a gift. Drop and check—She gave me a gift.

PRACTICE

Identify which grammatical form the objective case pronouns take in the following sentences. Fill in the blanks with a DO for a direct object, an IO for an indirect object, an OP for an object of the preposition, or an I for a pronoun connected to an infinitive.

He told them ____ after him _____. He had wanted to tell us ____ first, but when came to see me _____, I said that he should tell him ____ the news before me _____. He had not given it ____ much thought.

FOCUS Intensive and Reflexive Pronouns

Pronouns ending in “self” or “selves” are called intensive or reflexive pronouns. These are the intensive and reflexive pronouns: myself, ourselves, yourself, yourselves, himself (not hisself), herself, itself, and themselves.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Intensive pronouns end in “self” (singular) or “selves” (plural) and are used to emphasize other nouns or pronouns in the sentence. Removing the intensive pronoun does not change the meaning of the sentence. Intensive pronouns generally follow nouns or pronouns in the sentence and are not separated by commas.

Examples: I myself thought that they themselves would have been more honest.

Reflexive pronouns also end in “self” or “selves,” but are necessary to the meaning of the sentence and usually follow verbs or prepositions.

Examples: Lynn gave herself a compliment and took an extra piece of pie for herself.

PRACTICE

Write IP to identify intensive pronouns and RP to identify reflexive pronouns in the spaces provided.

I told them myself ____ because Patty would not tell them herself _____. Patty never thought of anyone but herself _____. When Patty first asked me herself _____, I said, “You should tell them what you did before they find out themselves _____.” Patty never apologized herself _____ for what she did.

WRITE

Compose your own sentence or two with an intensive pronoun and a reflexive pronoun.

FOCUS Pronoun–Antecedents

A pronoun usually refers to an antecedent. An antecedent is a common noun, proper noun, or pronoun that comes before it. The antecedent can be a word, phrase, or a clause. The pronoun which refers to the antecedent must clearly match to avoid pronoun–antecedent confusion.

CONNECT TO WRITING

- Make sure a singular pronoun matches a singular antecedent and a plural pronoun matches a plural antecedent.
Example: When Bob asked for help, they did help.
Problem—Who is they? Fix—When Bob asked his teachers for help, they did help.
- Make sure that the pronoun does not refer to the object in a prepositional phrase.
Example: In Twain’s The Celebrated Frog of Calaveras County, he uses political humor.
Problem—Who, or what, is he? Fix—In Twain’s The Celebrated Frog of Calaveras County, the author uses political humor.
- Make sure that the singular pronouns this and that and the plural pronouns these and those clearly refer to specific nouns or pronouns.
Example: He made an egg, put the dog food in a bowl, and put this on his toast to eat.
Problem—What is this? Fix—He made an egg and put it on his toast to eat. Then he put the dog food in its bowl.

PRACTICE

Write the capital letter in the space provided that best describes these pronoun–antecedent errors: PN for a pronoun–antecedent number problem; OP for a pronoun using the object of the preposition as its antecedent; and T for an unclear this, that, these, or those antecedent.

- ___ 1. She ate a cookie and took an apple, and I want it back.
- ___ 2. Around Yolanda and her, she always acts strangely.
- ___ 3. There are lots of ribbons and bows. Do we need all of those?
- ___ 4. If they leave sooner than Don, he should phone his parents.
- ___ 5. The girls tried on hats and new shoes and asked the boys if they liked these.

WRITE

Re-write one of the sentences in the PRACTICE section with clear pronoun antecedents.

FOCUS Who, Whose, Whom, That, Which

When to use who, whose, whom, what, and which can be tricky in a sentence.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Is it who, whose, or whom?

The pronoun who is a subject case pronoun. The pronoun who refers to a “do-er” in the sentence.

Example: Who is the best teacher?

Trick—Try substituting he for who and rephrase, if necessary. If it sounds right, use who.

The pronoun whose is a possessive case pronoun. The pronoun whose shows ownership and refers to a noun or pronoun before it.

Example: The teacher, whose classroom is at the back of the school, always locks her door.

The pronoun whom is an object case pronoun. It receives the action of a “do-er” in the sentence.

Examples: Whom did Joan love?

I like whom you gave the award. To whom does this letter concern?

Trick—Try substituting him for whom and rephrase, if necessary. If it sounds right, use whom.

Is it that or which?

The pronoun that can refer to people or things; the pronoun which can only refer to things.

Use the pronoun that when the clause is needed to understand the rest of the sentence.

Example: The movie that we watched was entertaining.

Use the pronoun which in clauses that provide additional, but not necessary information.

Example: That dog, which is friendly, was easy to train.

PRACTICE

Fill in the blanks with the following pronouns: who, whose, whom, that, or which

1. Joni Eareckson Tata, _____ is both an artist and singer, has no use of her hands nor legs.
2. Bobby and James, _____ family lives next door to me, are twins.
3. Josh showed her some pants _____ she purchased at the store.
4. “Blowin’ in the Wind,” _____ is a protest song, has been recorded frequently.
5. _____ did his sister meet at the party?

WRITE

Compose your own sentence with a who or whom, a whose, and a that or a which.

FOCUS Indefinite People Pronouns

An indefinite people pronoun does not refer to a specific noun.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Remember that a pronoun takes the place of a noun. Pronouns must match their verbs. Singular pronouns often use verbs ending in s. Plural pronouns often use verbs that don't end in s. An indefinite people pronoun does not identify a specific person.

- Some indefinite people pronouns take singular verbs.
Examples: anybody, anyone, everybody, everyone, nobody, no one, one, someone, and somebody.
- Other indefinite people pronouns take plural verbs.
Examples: both and others
- Some indefinite people pronouns may be singular or plural depending upon the surrounding word clues.
Examples: either and neither

PRACTICE

Cross out the verb errors and write the correct verb forms in the space above to match the indefinite people pronouns.

1. Each watch her own television show.
2. Everyone except James and Peter help me on the work project.
3. Both of them is ready for a vacation.
4. After they go to the movies, several goes out for dessert.
5. Neither give us much hope that our team will win the league this year.
6. I know others wants to be involved in this decision.

FOCUS Indefinite Size or Amount Pronouns

An indefinite amount or measurement pronoun does not refer to a specific noun.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Remember that a pronoun takes the place of a noun. Pronouns must match their verbs. Singular pronouns often use verbs ending in s. Plural pronouns often use verbs that don't end in s. An indefinite amount or measurement pronoun does not identify a specific place or thing.

- Some indefinite amount or measurement pronouns take singular verbs.
Examples: a great deal, a large amount, a lot, nothing, little, less, much, enough, every, and each
- Other indefinite amount or measurement pronouns take plural verbs.
Examples: a large number, few, fewer, many, several, lots, and plenty
- Some indefinite amount or measurement pronouns may be singular or plural depending upon the surrounding word clues.
Examples: all, any, half, more, most, none, other, and some

PRACTICE

Cross out the verb errors and write the correct verb forms in the space above to match the indefinite size or amount pronouns.

- Few of the actors remembers their lines.
- A great deal are known about television actors.
- Fewer vegetables is better than many.
- Some of candies tastes like they are stale.

WRITE

Write your own sentence with indefinite singular and indefinite plural size or amount pronouns.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #28

FOCUS Past Participles

A past participle is a modifier that defines, describes, or limits another word or words.

CONNECT TO WRITING

A past participle uses a helping verb (be— is, am, are, was, were), or (have— has, have, had) + a “__ed,” “__d,” “__t,” or “__en” added onto the base form of a verb to describe an action that happened in the past before another action. To avoid confusion, don’t put too many words between a past participle and the word or words it modifies. The helping verb shows past, present, or future actions.

Examples: I was defeated by a stronger opponent. I have defeated my opponent.

When used as an adjective, the past participle describes a condition in the past.

Example: Depressed, the child needed someone to listen to him.

Many of the common past participle forms are irregular and don’t use the “__ed,” “__d,” “__t,” or “__en” ending.

Example: The cat had caught a mouse (not catched or caughten).

PRACTICE

Underline the past participles and their helping verbs in the sentences below.

1. He has carefully listed his reasons for the purchase.
2. Paid a large amount for her services, the woman was happy to help.
3. Built by Native Americans, the caves were interesting.
4. They have never tried to sell any of their artwork.

WRITE

Write a sentence with a present participle acting as a verb and another sentence with a present participle acting as an adjective.

FOCUS Present Participles

A present participle is a modifier that defines, describes, or limits another word or words.

CONNECT TO WRITING

A present participle adds an “__ing” onto the base form of a verb. To avoid confusion, don’t put too many words between a present participle and the word or words it modifies.

When used as a verb, the present participle shows a continuous action and begins with a linking verb. Linking verbs include the “to be” verbs: is, am, are, was, were, be, being, been. The linking verb shows past, present, or future actions.

Examples: She was watching the show.
She is watching the show.
She will be watching the show.

When used as an adjective, the present participle shows a continuous condition, but does not usually begin with a linking verb.

Example: Walking, the boy caught up with his friend.

PRACTICE

Underline the present participles and their linking verbs in the sentences below.

1. Waiting for the train, the young man paced impatiently.
2. He was expecting the train to arrive on time.
3. After calling his parents, the boy decided to cancel the ticket and come home.
4. He will be mostly, but not always travelling by jet from now on.

WRITE

Compose a sentence with a present participle serving as a verb and another sentence with a present participle serving as an adjective.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #30

FOCUS Dangling / Misplaced Modifiers

A dangling modifier or a misplaced modifier does not clearly modify what the writer intends to modify.

CONNECT TO WRITING

A dangling modifier is an adjective or adverb that does not have a clear connection to the word, phrase, or clause to which it refers. A dangling modifier usually takes the form of a present participle (“__ing”), a past participle (“__d,” “__t,” “__ed,” “__en”) or an infinitive (to + the base form of a verb). To eliminate the dangling modifier, place the “do-er” of the sentence as the subject of the independent clause or combine the phrase and independent clause.

Example: Removed from her desk, Paula put the backpack on the floor. (Her backpack was removed from the desk; not Paula.)

A misplaced modifier does not modify what the writer intends because of where it is placed in the sentence. To eliminate misplaced modifiers, place them close to the words that they modify.

Examples: I only ate the fresh vegetables. In this sentence only is the modifier. (The writer does not mean that the only thing she does with fresh vegetables is to eat them.)

PRACTICE

Re-write the two example sentences above by revising the dangling or misplaced modifiers.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #31

FOCUS Short Comparative Modifiers

A short comparative modifier uses “__er” for a one-syllable modifier to compare two things.

Example: big–bigger

CONNECT TO WRITING

A modifier describes the meaning of another word or words and makes it more specific or limits its meaning or meanings.

Example: I ate the big piece. The word big is a modifier, making piece more specific.

Some two-syllable comparative modifiers use “__er” and some use more (less). If adding “__er” sounds strange, use more (less) instead.

These comparative modifiers are irregular.

Single Modifier	Comparative
good/well	better
bad/badly	worse (not worser )
much/many	more

PRACTICE

Cross out any misused comparative modifiers, and write the correct word above each error.

1. Earth is close to the sun than is Mars.
2. Sammy works more hard than my club member.
3. He dresses in his uniform most often than the members of his troop.
4. Of my brother and my sister, my brother acts worser.
5. She is sadder than I, but she is happier than my brother.

WRITE

Write your own sentence with a one-syllable “__er” comparative modifier and a second sentence with a two-syllable more comparative modifier. Don’t use any modifiers from this worksheet.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #32

FOCUS Short Superlative Modifiers

A short superlative modifier uses “__est” for a one-syllable modifier to compare three or more things.

Example: big–biggest

CONNECT TO WRITING

A modifier describes the meaning of another word or words and makes it more specific or limits its meaning or meanings.

Example: I ate the big piece. The word big is a modifier, making piece more specific.

Use “__est” for a one-syllable modifier to compare three or more things.

Some two-syllable superlative modifiers use “__est” and some use most (least). If adding “__est” sounds strange, use most (least) instead.

Examples: easy–easiest or gracious–most or least gracious

Avoid the common mistake of using superlative adjectives to compare only two things.

Example: Problem–Of the two basketball players, James is the most improved.

Solution–Of the two basketball players, James is the more improved

These superlative modifiers are irregular.

Single Modifier	Comparative	Superlative
good/well	better	best
bad/badly	worse	worst (not worstest )
much/many	more	most

PRACTICE

Cross out any misused superlative modifiers, and write the correct word above each error.

1. The quicker sprinter of the three was Carl Lewis.
2. Comparing the red and green apples, the red ones are the most desired.
3. He chose the bigger piece of the whole cherry pie.
4. Among Reba, Jim, and Antoinette, Reba is the better student.

WRITE

Write your own sentence with an “__est” modifier. Use no modifiers found on this worksheet.

FOCUS Long and “__ly” Comparative Modifiers

Both long and “__ly” comparative modifiers use more (less) for a three-syllable or longer modifier to compare two things.

Example: delicious—more or less delicious

CONNECT TO WRITING

A modifier describes the meaning of another word or words and makes it more specific or limits its meaning or meanings.

Example: I ate the delicious cake. The word delicious is a modifier making cake more specific.

Some long comparative modifiers are adjectives. Adjectives modify a proper noun, a common noun, or a pronoun and answer Which one? How many? or What kind?

Example: intelligent—The intelligent man was more intelligent than his father.

Some long comparative modifiers are adverbs. Adverbs modify a verb or another adverb and answer What degree? How? Where? or When? Use more or less for adverbs ending in “__ly.”

Example: angrily—She argued angrily—even more angrily than her mother.

PRACTICE

Cross out any misused comparative modifiers, and write the correct form above each error.

1. Geometry seems difficulter than algebra.
2. Tina did an outstandinger job than she had predicted.
3. Saying which one was the most incredible of the two was hard.
4. That behavior is most ridiculous than ever.
5. Of the two girls who are not here, the first one is least suspiciously absent.
6. The detective most suspected the blonde, rather than the brunette woman.
7. She acted least nervously than the other athlete.

WRITE

Write your own sentence with a three-syllable more modifier. Don't use any modifiers found on this worksheet.

FOCUS Long and “__ly” Superlative Modifiers

Both long and “__ly” superlative modifiers use most (least) for a three-syllable or longer modifier to compare three or more things.

Example: wonderful—most or least wonderful

CONNECT TO WRITING

A modifier describes the meaning of another word or words and makes it more specific or limits its meaning or meanings.

Example: I ate the delicious cake. The word delicious is a modifier making cake more specific.

Some long superlative modifiers are adjectives. Some long comparative modifiers are adjectives. Adjectives modify a proper noun, a common noun, or a pronoun and answer Which one? How many? or What kind?

Example: intelligent—Of the many intelligent men in the group, he was the most intelligent.

Some long comparative modifiers are adverbs. Adverbs modify a verb or another adverb and answer What degree? How? Where? or When? Use more or less for adverbs ending in “__ly.”

Example: angrily—Of the three arguing angrily, she argued most angrily.

PRACTICE

Cross out any misused superlative modifiers, and write the correct form above each error. If the sentence is correctly written, leave as is.

1. This boy is the more considerate one in the group.
2. That is the less specifically planned stop of our whole vacation.
3. Of all the pilots, he more carefully practiced his take-offs.
4. You more understood the problem than any student in the class.
5. Of the four possible backpack treks, this is the simplest planned hike.
6. That airline is the less frequently on-time airline of all United States airlines.

WRITE

Write your own sentence with a three-syllable most modifier. Use no modifiers found on this worksheet.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #35

FOCUS Linking and Helping Verbs

A linking verb is a mental action or state of being. A helping verb shows time, number, or modifies the meaning of a verb.

CONNECT TO WRITING

A linking verb renames or describes the subject of the sentence with another word or words.

Each “to be” verb can be a linking verb: is, am, are, was, were, be, being, been

Examples: Mrs. Patterson was here. My friends are so nice.

Verbs that use the five senses: look, sound, smell, feel, taste and others: appear, seem, become, grow, turn, prove, remain can also be used as linking verbs.

Examples: Charlie feels awful. The children became tired.

Helping verbs are placed before the base form of the verb and any verb endings. More than one helping verb can be used in a sentence. Sometimes a word such as not separates the helping verb from the base form of the verb. A helping verb can also be placed before a linking verb to modify its meaning. English has 23 helping verbs:

is, am, are, was, were, be, being, been, has, have, had, do, does, did, will, shall, should, would, can, could, may, might, must

PRACTICE

Write LV to identify linking verbs and HV to identify helping verbs in the spaces provided.

Lydia was ____ sure that she saw both of her friends at the mall. Her friends had ____ told her that they were ____ going to the library to study, but that did ____ not turn ____ out to be ____ true.

Good friends would not have ____ lied to her. Why they felt ____ like they had ____ to lie to Lydia would ____ be ____ anyone's guess. It seems ____ like Lydia should ____ find some new friends.

FOCUS      Modals

Modals are helping verbs that describe different conditional states of a verb.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Modals show these conditions for their verbs: need, advice, ability, expectation, requirement, permission, or possibility. Modals are placed before verbs to form verb phrases. English regularly uses eight modals: can, could, may, might, must, should, will, and would; two are rarely used: ought to and shall.

Examples: Dennis can eat a lot of pie. (ability) Shelly might become a doctor. (possibility)
Toby could use some exercise. (need)

Never use the word of after a modal.

Example: Use “must have,” not “must of.”

PRACTICE

In the spaces provided following each sentence, list which of these conditions best matches the modals: need, advice, ability, expectation, requirement, permission, or possibility

1. Yes, you may go to the restroom. _____
2. I could have tried harder on my science project. _____
3. If we decide to go, we will have to leave by three o'clock. _____
4. We would have to use more glue to make it stick. _____
5. You definitely should have written a thank-you card. _____
6. Melvin can help you if you want. _____
7. Students must learn to use modals properly. _____

FOCUS Past Tense Verbs

The past verb tense is a physical or mental action or a state of being that took place at a specific time. For the past verb tense, add an “_ed” onto the base form of regular verbs.

Examples: Ismelda wasted a lot of my time yesterday.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Usually use the past verb tense when the words before or after appear in a sentence.

Example: She attended St. John’s Academy after third grade.

Another way to state the past tense is to place did before the base form of the word.

Example: work–did work

About 50 of the most common verbs have irregular past tenses, including these: do–did, go–went, have–had, see–saw, run–ran, and be–was, were.

PRACTICE

Re-write these sentences in the spaces provided, changing each verb to the past tense.

1. Penny helps at the senior center after school.

FOCUS Past Progressive Verbs

The past progressive verb tense is used to show an ongoing action in the past.

CONNECT TO WRITING

The past progressive verb tense shows an action that took place over a period of time in the past or a past action which was happening when another action took place. The past progressive uses was + the base form of the verb + “ing” to match singular nouns and pronouns and were + the base form of the verb + “ing” to match plural nouns and pronouns.

Examples: She was hoping I would change my mind. Prudence and Leanne were cooking brownies when their friend, Marci, knocked on the door.

PRACTICE

Re-write these sentences in the spaces provided, changing each verb to the past progressive tense.

1. Larry enjoyed the beautiful sunsets at the beach.

FOCUS Past Perfect Verbs

The past perfect verb tense is a physical or mental action or a state of being that happened before another action or a specific time in the past.

CONNECT TO WRITING

The past perfect verb tense is formed with had + the past participle (a verb ending in “__ed,” “__d,” “__t,” or “__en” for regular verbs).

Examples:

I had promised her that I would visit before I learned about the accident.

She had already found her watch when I started looking for it.

Timothy had built another fort by the time I came out to help.

They had given me another chance when they saw how hard I tried.

PRACTICE

FOCUS Present Tense Verbs

The present tense verb is a physical or mental action or a state of being happening or existing now.

Examples: Matthew walks slowly around the block. Singular Subject Oralia and Rosa walk slowly around the block. Plural Subject

CONNECT TO WRITING

The present verb tense can describe a physical or mental action that happens over and over again

Example: He plays the game like it is a matter of life or death.

The present verb tense is used to discuss literature, art, movies, theater, and music—even if the content is set in the past

Example: Thomas Jefferson states that “all men are created equal.”

PRACTICE

Re-write these sentences in the spaces provided, changing each verb to the present tense.

1. We tried to find the best deals on the Internet.

---

2. He should have listened to what his parents have to say.

FOCUS Present Progressive Verbs

The present progressive verb tense is used to show an ongoing action in the present.

CONNECT TO WRITING

The present progressive verb tense shows an action that takes place over a period of time in the present or an action taking place at the same time the statement is written. The present progressive uses I am + the base form of the verb + “  ing,” is + the base form of the verb + “  ing” to match singular nouns and pronouns and are + the base form of the verb + “  ing” to match plural nouns and pronouns.

Examples: I am swimming every morning this summer. Our teachers are starting a new reading program at school.

PRACTICE

Re-write these sentences in the spaces provided, changing each verb to the present progressive tense.

1. Phoebe listened to the teacher as she works.

---

2. I run down the street to the end of the block when I see my friend.

FOCUS Present Perfect Verbs

The present perfect verb tense is a physical or mental action or a state of being happening or existing before the present. The present perfect is formed with has or have + the past participle (a verb ending in “_ed,” “_d,” “_t,” or “_en” for regular verbs).

Example: He has already started his science project.

CONNECT TO WRITING

The present perfect verb tense has the following uses:

- To describe an action that took place at some unidentified time in the past that relates to the present
Example: The students have studied hard for today’s test.
- To describe an action that began in the past but continues to the present
Example: The teachers have taught these standards for five years.
- To describe the length of time an action has been in progress up to the present time
This verb form is known as the present perfect progressive tense. It is formed with has or have been and the _ing form of the verb.
Example: The students have been writing for over an hour.

PRACTICE

Re-write these sentences in the spaces provided, changing each verb to the present perfect tense.

1. Esmerelda developed a fantastic web site.

FOCUS Future Tense Verbs

The future verb tense is an action or state of being that will take place in the future. To form the future verb tense, use will + the base form of the verb.

Example: Mr. Thomas will go to the meeting tomorrow.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Some teachers still require students to use shall + the base form of the verb to form the future tense for the first person singular I and plural we.

Examples: I shall visit you tomorrow. We shall enjoy each other's company.

PRACTICE

Re-write these sentences in the spaces provided, changing each verb to the future tense.

1. I leave school at two o'clock for a dentist appointment.

FOCUS      Future Progressive Verbs

The future progressive verb tense is used to show an ongoing action in the future.

CONNECT TO WRITING

The future progressive verb tense shows an ongoing action that will be completed over a period of time.

Example: Dante will be watching the playoff game tonight.

The future progressive verb tense can also show a repeated action that will not be completed. The future progressive uses will be + the base form of the verb + “ing” to match both singular and plural nouns and pronouns.

Example: They will be trying some new ideas in the classroom.

PRACTICE

Change the verbs in the following sentences to the future progressive verb tense in the spaces provided.

1. We will run the mile in P.E. today.

---

2. I thought of you as you celebrate your birthday.

FOCUS Future Perfect Verbs

The future perfect verb tense refers to a physical or mental action or a state of being that will be completed before a specific time in the future. The future perfect is formed with a helping verb such as the modals: can, could, may, might, must, shall, should, will, and would + has or have + with had + the past participle (a verb ending in “_ed,” “_d,” “_t,” or “_en” for regular verbs).

Example: We will have walked six miles by three-o’clock this afternoon.

CONNECT TO WRITING

The future perfect verb tense either states or implies (suggests without stating) a specific time in the future.

PRACTICE

Cross out the verbs in these sentences and substitute each with the future perfect tense.

-A physical or mental action or a state of being that will be completed before a specific time in the future

1. We ride bikes until our legs begin to ache.
2. They had seen three busses pass their house in ten more minutes.
3. You will tell three stories in front of the class by the end of this year.

-The length of time an action will be in progress up to a specific time in the future

4. They are sleeping for ten hours by this noon.
5. Mother and father gave twenty dollars every month for twenty years by this summer.
6. Not one animal will perform by the time we get to the circus.

FOCUS      Commas with Speaker Tags

Speaker tags are the words used to identify the speaker in dialogue and describe exactly how the speaker communicates that dialogue.

Example: Tom (the speaker) shouted (how communicated), “Watch out!”

CONNECT TO WRITING

In dialogue sentences, place commas 1. After a beginning speaker tag to the left of the quotation marks 2. Before and after a middle speaker tag to the left of both quotation marks 3. Before an ending speaker tag to the left of the quotation marks

Examples:

Beginning	She said, “Leave home at once.”	Note capitalization of the sentence quotation in the middle of the sentence.
Middle	“Leave home,” she said, “at once.”	Note placement of the quotation marks outside of the punctuation.
End	“Leave home at once,” she said.	Note how speaker tag placement changes the meaning of the sentence.

Use a variety of speaker tags such as said, replied, shouted, and explained in dialogue to show the speaker’s exact meaning and tone of voice. Avoid over-using said.

When writing dialogue, begin a new paragraph each time you change speakers. Don’t start a new paragraph to continue dialogue by the same speaker.

PRACTICE

Re-write the following quotation sentences with proper punctuation:

1. She said I usually do chores after school
2. They left town I said in a shiny new car
3. I can’t believe it he exclaimed

WRITE

Write a three sentence dialogue with three different placements of speaker tags.

FOCUS Commas with Appositives

Use commas to set apart appositives and appositive phrases that are not necessary to understand the sentence. Don't use commas when the appositive or appositive phrase is essential.

CONNECT TO WRITING

An appositive is a noun, pronoun, or noun phrase that identifies or explains another noun or pronoun before or after it.

Examples: The man, the one with the hat, ordered two desserts.
My friend, Laura, left the show early.

PRACTICE

Place commas in the following sentences to set apart appositives.

1. Joe and Mandy our debate leaders thought we had a good chance.
2. Johnny Mingo the Australian cowboy rode his horse off into the sunset.
3. Searching for answers, Louis Pasteur the famous scientist carried on.
4. Jim the butler served their last meal.

Fill in the blanks with appositives from the list below and properly punctuate.

FOCUS      Commas within Series

Use commas after each item, phrase, or clause in a series (except the last). A series is a list.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Newspapers and some magazines delete the last comma; however, most style manuals still require the last comma.

Examples:    John, Jan, and Jose left early.
                      If crazy Mary, unpredictable Bobby, or silly Joe were up to something, I would know about it.
                      The crowd hushed, the lights dimmed, and the fireworks began.

PRACTICE

Place commas where needed in the following sentences.

1. Jane Mike and Ray pulled the car off to the side.
2. Along the road an old car two broomsticks and a funny green-eyed monster stood guard.
3. Take a hike smell the flowers and enjoy life for the rest of the afternoon.
4. Joan counted one two three four five.

Fill in the blanks with the word groups listed below and properly punctuate.

5. _____ are my favorite colors.
6. They ordered _____ for breakfast.
7. Mr. Burt called on one of the following students: _____.

Jaime Marta or Frank      blue green and yellow      eggs bacon and wheat toast

FOCUS      Commas with Introductions

Generally, use commas after introductory words, phrases, and clauses if they are emphasized or longer than four words.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Introductory Words

Commas are not needed after an introductory word in short sentences unless it is emphasized.

Examples: Now go home. However, they were wrong.

Introductory Phrases

Don't use a comma after short introductory prepositional phrases of four words or less.

Example: Under the table the dog hid.

Use a comma after long introductory prepositional phrases of five words or more.

Example: Behind the dining room cabinet, he found the missing watch.

Use a comma following an introductory participial phrase which modifies a noun or pronoun following the phrase.

Example: Disguised as an old man, the burglar gained entry into the warehouse.

Introductory Clauses

Use comma following an introductory dependent clause. A dependent clause has a noun connected to a verb that does not express a complete thought.

Example: Even though the temperatures rose, the snow continued to fall.

PRACTICE

Place commas after introductory words, phrases, and clauses when appropriate.

1. Whenever the girls called he went outside to see what they wanted.
2. Then go to bed.
3. Around the block she rode the bicycle.
4. Next ask about the directions to the factory.

FOCUS      Commas with Nouns of Direct Speech

Use commas before or after nouns of direct speech.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Nouns of direct speech refer to special persons who are spoken to in a sentence. They can be placed at the start of the sentence, in the middle of the sentence, or at the end of the sentence.

Examples:

Sentence Beginning    Kristen, leave some for your sister.

Sentence Middle        If you do that, James and Myra, you will be playing with fire.

Commas come before and after the noun or nouns of direct speech.

Sentence End            Don't ever listen to him, brother.

PRACTICE

Place commas in the appropriate places for nouns of direct speech.

1. Listen to me Barbara and then make up your own mind.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #52

FOCUS      Commas with Conjunctions

Use commas before conjunctions to join two clauses.

CONNECT TO WRITING

A comma is placed before the coordinating conjunction if it joins two or more independent clauses unless one or both of the clauses are short. The acronym, FANBOYS (For-And-Nor-But-Or-Yet-So), may help you remember the common two or three-letter coordinating conjunctions.

Examples: I liked everything about her, and she also liked me. I liked her and she liked me.

A comma is placed before the second of paired correlative conjunctions, if the conjunction begins an independent clause. Don't use a comma to separate correlative conjunctions if they are used within the same phrase or clause. Correlative conjunctions include the following:

both...and      either...or      whether...or      neither...nor

Example: Either she should ask for help, or she should read the directions again.

A comma is placed after the adverbial clause, which begins with a subordinating conjunction, if the clause does not end the sentence. This memory trick may help you remember the common subordinating conjunctions: Bud is wise, but hot. AAA WWW

Before unless despite (in spite of) in order that since while if since even though (if),
because until that how once than! After Although (though) As (As if, As long as, As much as,
As soon as, As though) Whether When (Whenever) Where (Wherever)

Example: As much as I liked her company, she eventually became tiresome.

PRACTICE

Place commas where they belong in the following sentences.

1. Neither he wanted to face the problem nor did she want to deal with that challenge.
2. In order that all people would have the same chance they decided to draw numbers.
3. Raymond sent a message to his cousin but the message was returned unopened.

FOCUS Punctuation of Short Story / Document Titles

Use quotation marks before and after short story, document, and report titles.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Very familiar documents such as the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution require no punctuation.

Examples: I think that his short story, "He Never Lies," may have been based on the secret government document known as "The Pentagon Papers."
The short story, "Flowers," is one of the best. I read about it in the report titled "Best Short Stories of 2004."

PRACTICE

Place quotation marks before and after short story, document, and report titles in the following sentences.

1. In Twice-Told Tales, Nathaniel Hawthorne tells many short stories such as The Great Carbuncle, The Gray Champion, The Wedding Knell and The May-Pole of Merry Mount.
2. Richard Adams has a wonderful collection of his favorite animal stories including his own The Rabbit's Ghost Story.
3. James Herriot's short story Monty the Bull tells the entertaining story of a bull that gets the best of a veterinarian.
4. Doris Summers finished her Lake Tahoe Water Conditions report last week.
5. The school board prepared a document titled State of the District and printed 200 copies.

WRITE

Compose your own sentence with a short story title or a document title. Do not use any of the short stories or documents mentioned on this worksheet.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #69

FOCUS Punctuation of Direct Quotations

Use quotation marks before and after direct quotations.

CONNECT TO WRITING

A direct quotation includes the spoken or written words exactly as they appear in speech or text.

- Place double quotation marks around speech or text that belong to someone else. If the speaker changes, begin a new paragraph. Always place quotation marks outside periods.
- Use single quotation marks for a quotation inside a quotation. Put a question mark, exclamation point, semicolon, or colon that belongs to your writing, not the quote, outside the closing quotation marks.

Example: He said, "I agree with Lincoln. However, was our nation really 'dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal'?"

- Do not use quotation marks for indirect quotations. An indirect quotation summarizes what someone has said.

Example: He said that she had never seen Thomas before.

- When a quoted sentence is interrupted by comments, and is then continued in the same sentence, begin the rest of the quotation with a lower case letter.

Example: "When," asked Mavis, "will you finish your lunch?"

PRACTICE

Place quotation marks and punctuation in the following sentences.

- I'm anxious to leave commented Zelda
- What just took place asked Robert
- What a terrific ending to that story exclaimed Anthony
- Did you hear the speaker say things will never be the same asked Billy
- I know replied Max but do you really want to make a big deal out of this

WRITE

Write your own sentence with a quotation within a quotation.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #70

FOCUS      Apostrophes (Contractions)

A contraction is a shortened form of one or two words (one of which is usually a verb). In a contraction, the apostrophe takes the place of the missing letter or letters.

CONNECT TO WRITING+

Contractions may be used in informal writing; however, avoid using contractions in formal essay writing. These are the most common contractions:

is (she's, it's, there's, where's, here's)	are (they're, we're, you're)	am (I'm)	us (let's)
had (I'd, he'd, they'd, we'd)	have (could've, they've, might've, should've)
will (I'll, they'll, we'll, she'll, it'll)	not (isn't, can't, shouldn't, wouldn't, hasn't, doesn't, aren't, won't)

Examples: They could've asked, but they've always wondered if they'll find out anyway.
They should've known that they didn't have a chance.

PRACTICE

Place apostrophes in the appropriate places in the following story.

For all of their talk, they've rarely come to see whos playing at the club. They havent shown up in over three weeks, and so they cant really comment on what they dont know. I will say they're in for a treat when they do come. There's a band that isn't afraid to let loose. They didnt hold back during their set Friday night and they wont tonight.

Change each of the underlined words to contractions in the parentheses which follow.

1. It is ( ) a shame that they never listen to their parents.
2. You are ( ) sure that you have ( ) never seen them?
3. Where is ( ) she going? They are ( ) not exactly saying.
4. She is ( ) happy that they had ( ) left directions.

WRITE

Compose your own sentence or two with at least two contractions.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #71

FOCUS      Semicolons

Use semicolons to join phrases and clauses without conjunctions.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Semicolons can be used instead of commas to combine phrases or dependent clauses that have commas in very long sentences. The best way to think about a Semicolon is that it Substitutes for a Comma-conjunction. Make sure that the semicolon connects phrases or clauses that have some relationship. For example, He went to town; she ran a barbershop has no relationship between the clauses.

Examples: Anna showed up late; Louise didn't at all.
His disguise was picture-perfect; no one could recognize him.

PRACTICE

Place semicolons in the appropriate places between phrases and clauses.

1. Samuel went shopping then he went out to dinner.
2. The album includes: the heart-throbbing rhythm, rock, and blues "Sawmill" the surprisingly speedy, yet soulful "Ol' Dog Blues" and the highlight of the CD, "Mama's Return."
3. I was taught Spanish at home by a tutor that's how I learned the language.
4. The Revolutionary War was fought against the British the War of 1812 was also fought against them.
5. Many died in the Civil War it was a horrible tragedy.
6. Ellen did not prepare at all she appeared not to care what would happen as a result.
7. Through many long days of looking after many attempts and failures despite many questions left unanswered, they finally decided to buy a home of their own.

WRITE

Compose your own sentence with a semicolon.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #72

---

FOCUS      Parentheses / Dashes

Use parentheses or dashes before and after words or ideas to explain or define the words or ideas.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Information within a set of parentheses or dashes gives explanation or definition, but is not needed to understand the sentence. The information within the parentheses or dashes can be a word or a phrase.

Examples:      Explanation      The colors (green and blue) seemed perfect.
                         Definition      The protocol—rules to be followed—was to save such tricks only for a real dog fight.

If the added information is a complete thought, it should be written as a sentence with the period outside of an ending parenthesis.

Example:      Sentence      Their plan was incomplete (They really did not think it through.)

PRACTICE

Place parentheses in the appropriate places in the following sentences. Don't add in commas or dashes.

1. Jackie Smith 1845-1910 worked in the women's rights movement. You should read some of her descriptive letters the ones to Charlene.
2. That new Bed and Breakfast it was once a barn is a popular rental with out-of-town visitors.
3. The Nile River the longest river in the world flows 4,000 miles through Egypt and the Sudan.
4. The common daisy Chrysanthemum leucanthemum can make a beautiful spring bouquet.
5. Thomas Jefferson the author of the Declaration of Independence seemed confused: he spoke out against the evils of slavery, but he himself owned slaves.
6. As you turn right you will notice a large yellow house the one with a white picket fence and its remarkable front porch.

WRITE

Write your own sentence with parentheses.

---

FOCUS      Apostrophes (Singular Possessives)

Use apostrophes for singular possessives.

CONNECT TO WRITING

For a singular possessive noun (a noun showing ownership), place an apostrophe at the end of the noun and add an s.

- If the noun ends in an s and the s has a z sound, you may choose to make it a possessive by adding an apostrophe, then an s, or simply end with an apostrophe.
Example: Charles's friend or Charles' friend
- Do not use an apostrophe before the s in a simple plural noun.
- Do not use an apostrophe with a possessive pronoun (yours, his, hers, ours, yours, its, theirs)

Examples: Joe's skill is amazing, and so is Chris' (or Miles') skill is tops.

PRACTICE

Place apostrophes in the proper places for singular possessives in the following limericks.

There once was a child's horse named Skittin',

Its upbringing definitely British.

The poor horse's tail was once yanked by a male from London's own Twickenham fittish.

There once was a rose's bright bloom

Whose fragrance invaded Mom's room

Nature's petals will fall, and at the end of it all,

Life's beauty swept out by a broom.

WRITE

Write two sentences with two singular possessives.

---

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #74

FOCUS      Apostrophes (Plural Possessives)

Use apostrophes for plural possessives.

CONNECT TO WRITING

For most plural possessive nouns (a noun showing ownership), place the comma after the s.

Example: boys' cups

Some plural possessives place the apostrophe before the s, if the plural is spelled differently than the singular.

Examples:	Singular	Singular Possessive	Plural	Plural Possessive woman	woman's	women	women's child	child's	children	children's

PRACTICE

Place apostrophes in the proper places for plural possessives in the following sentences.

1. Will the Firemens Ball be held on the same weekend as last year?
2. The Smiths house is perfect for our graduation party.
3. Will the puppies food change over the next month?
4. I think that the womens group meets every other Tuesday at the clubhouse.
5. The Childrens Crusade was led by Nicholas in response to a dream.
6. Let's watch the girls basketball game before we go miniature golfing.
7. Have the boys asked to borrow their parents cars for the night?
8. The county restaurants plans to offer any left-over food to the homeless were ambitious.
9. There is no doubt that workers rights to health have not been fulfilled.
10. That Thompsons front yard needs some major clean-up, if you ask me.

WRITE

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #75

FOCUS      Colons

Use colons to show a relationship between numbers. Also use a colon to show a relationship of ideas within titles or between sentences. Colons are also used at the end of an independent clause to introduce information to explain the clause. An independent clause has a noun connected to a verb that tells a complete thought.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Colons have the following uses:

- Relationship between Numbers
Examples: Time (8:02 P.M.), Ratio (3:1), Chapter-Verse (Genesis 32:1-13)
- Relationship between Ideas
Example: Teaching: The Lost Art
- Explanation of the Independent Clause (Don't place colons after verbs.)
  - List            Example: Order this food: bananas, potato chips, and hamburgers.
  - Quotation   Example: The teacher offered this advice: Work smarter, not harder.
  - Explanation Example: She did a wonderful thing: She let him do what he wanted.
  - Rule          Example: This is the most important rule: Keep your hands to yourself.

PRACTICE

Place colons in the appropriate places in the following sentences.

1. I need the following items toothpaste, a toothbrush, a comb, and soap.
2. The magician performed a trick. It was more of a miracle.
3. The philosopher Santayana commented upon the value of history. Those who fail to learn from history are doomed to repeat it.
4. Please play these pieces "Aria and Fugue," "Suite in D Major," and "The 3rd Symphony."
5. Only one fact remains true. Things never happen as planned.
6. She knew the Golden Rule. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.
7. The principal's rules were posted. Be Kind, Share with Others, Don't Touch.

WRITE

Compose your own sentence with a colon to introduce a list.

Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics Worksheet #76

FOCUS      Periods with Abbreviations / Initials / Acronyms

Use periods for abbreviations, initials, and acronyms.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Periods have a variety of uses other than ending sentences.

- Use periods in abbreviations. Avoid using abbreviations in formal essay writing.
Examples: The U.S. Constitution, 300 B.C.
- Use periods for initials, names, and titles
Example: Mr. R.J. Jenkins, Jr.
- Use periods in most acronyms. Acronyms are words formed from the first letters or groups of letters of words. Acronyms are pronounced as words. It is becoming common practice to drop periods in well-known acronyms.
Examples: Do you know your Z.I.P. code? ZIP code

PRACTICE

Fill in the blanks with the correct initials, abbreviations, or acronyms.

1. The abbreviation for time Before Christ is written as _____.
2. The time after noon is called Post Meridian and is written as _____.
3. Additional information at a letter's end is called a postscript and is written as _____.
4. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration is an acronym known as _____.
5. _____ divers use a self-contained underwater breathing apparatus.
6. When Ms. Bean married Mr. Jones, she took on his last name and became _____ Jones.
7. The abbreviation for exempli gratia is _____, which means for example.
8. The abbreviation for et cetera is _____, which means and so forth.
9. Five and one-half written as a decimal would be _____.

FOCUS Exclamation Points

Use exclamation points to show strong emotion or surprise.

CONNECT TO WRITING

Exclamation points should be used sparingly, especially in formal essay writing. Use specific nouns and vivid verbs to build emotion or surprise. Only use one exclamation point. They may be placed at the end of exclamatory sentences or after words, phrases, or clauses.

Examples: Exclamatory Sentence      The decision really shocked me!
Word / Phrase / Clause      Wow! How amazing! If she only knew!

PRACTICE

Add correct ending punctuation, including exclamation points where appropriate.

1. Run Don't walk
2. She helps a lot What a treasure
3. He is very talented Such amazing creativity
4. How shocked he was I guess he didn't know
5. What excitement If you don't like that you don't like N.B.A. basketball
6. Did he do it I can't believe it
7. How surprising When did Tom find out
8. And no one knew about it How crazy
9. Stop in the name of the law You have the right to remain silent
10. How awful No one has the right to act that way
11. He came out of retirement to play one more year Imagine that
